Who is SCOA and why should you join?

SCOA has been around since 1923 and is one of Australia's oldest not-for-profit retiree organisations.

SCOA advocates on behalf of retired public servants (federal and state) in a wide range of policy areas including superannuation, taxation, health, aged care and many other matters that may affect their lifestyle in retirement.

SCOA's current priorities include

- Pension indexation
- Taxation
- Defined benefit pensions and superannuation
- Age Pension
- Commonwealth Seniors Health Card
- Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme
- Medicare benefits and dental schemes
- Digital delivery of government services

Benefits to members

- Advocacy and support
- Information about superannuation and retirement issues
- Representation of members' interests to their superannuation funds
- Free copy of SCOA's Bereavement Book
- Access to shopping discounts at Union Shopper
- Access to SCOA Qantas Club Corporate Scheme discount
- Website full of useful information
- SuperTime quarterly national newsletter informing members on key retirement issues
- Interesting guest speakers at local meetings
- Volunteering and friendship opportunities

Some of SCOA's achievements

- Twice yearly pension indexation
- Comcare client assistance program
- Low income energy supplement
- Workers to continue to receive compensation payments until they reach age pension age.

Achievements shared with other organisations

- Increased age pension payments for single persons
- Introduction and enhancement of the Seniors Card
- Reform of superannuation legislation regarding benefits to partners in same sex relationships
- National public transport concessions for Seniors Card holders
- Reversal of government policy to index the Age Pension by the CPI
- Indexation of income thresholds for the Commonwealth Seniors Health Card
